At the December 17th meeting of the Lenawee County Fair and Event Grounds Board, a decision was made to eliminate the position of General Manager. Concerns over the current economic conditions prompted the action.

Fair organizations across the state are facing and making similar decisions. The Jackson County Fair eliminated the manager's position earlier this fall, and in Allegan, one of two management positions was eliminated in November.

Former manager Chris Miller indicated that he was disappointed in the decision, but understood that the board believed this was a strategy that could financially protect the organization. "It has been a privilege to work for the board and community at the Fair and Event Grounds. I am extremely proud of what we have accomplished over this past six years, and wish only the best for the organization."
